V. NATURE OF THE SERVICE: The Services provided by the "App" correspond to information collection services provided by the "User" in order to obtain a customized design of a work plan aimed at consolidating a continuous personal growth process, achieving an ideal balance between the six (06) areas of life through the objective diagnosis of the "User's" current life situation, identification and prioritization of areas for improvement, creation of structured transformation plans, and the execution of conscious daily actions. The "App" is not responsible for the truthfulness or reliability of the data uploaded by the "User" nor for the fulfillment of the designed plan, the "User" being solely responsible for choosing to follow the proposed plan for achieving the stated personal goals and for its compliance; therefore, the "App" is limited to processing the data provided by the "User", displaying indexes and graphs based on said information, and presenting the proposals of the plan to follow. Likewise, the results obtained by the "USER" will depend directly on their commitment to following the recommendations presented by the "App" and the time dedicated thereto. The "App" is a web application that allows its users to have control over their routine to favor personal development and growth. The Service will be provided via the Internet, and the "User" may access it through computer equipment (PC, Mac, Linux, etc.), and other telematic channels that technology allows at any given time and that the "App" makes available to them. The "App" is not responsible for "User" or third-party connection problems regarding which information is received. The "App" shall not be liable for non-compliance with these general conditions if it is due to technical failures, connection issues, website downtime, server crashes, failures of the computer equipment, mobile devices or software used by the "App" to provide its "Services", and in general, any kind of failure or error attributable to third parties or causes beyond the control of the "App". Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any type of technical failure beyond the responsibility of the "App" is verified, it will make its best efforts to provide the "User" with the technical assistance that allows them to access the Services and information as soon as possible. The "App" may block access to and use of the Service when it deems it necessary for security reasons. To unblock the "Service", the "User" must use the tools enabled on the Service website <https://flowpartners.cl/>, or in special cases, contact LIVELIFE. The "App" may suspend the use of the application or any of its functionalities through scheduled downtimes of up to 72 hours, having to inform its "Users" thereof with at least 15 days' notice. The "User" of the Service is responsible for the custody of the access passwords to the "App" and is not authorized to share them with anyone. If there is any security risk regarding said passwords, the User must change them immediately and immediately inform the "App". Likewise, the "User" may, at any time, modify or replace their access passwords to the "Service", using the tools enabled for this purpose, and reset the passwords in case of forgetfulness.

VI. APP FUNCTIONALITY:

- Initial Evaluation: Upon registration, each "User" completes a unique evaluation of 60 questions (10 questions per life area) with binary answers (YES/NO) through which objective criteria are evaluated; this evaluation can only be done ONCE and cannot be modified later.
- Oniogramas: "Users" create transformation plans of exactly ninety (90) days; each Oniogram focuses on ONE (01) specific life area, with a MAXIMUM of two (02) active Oniogramas in the same life area, while the "User" may have ONLY three (03) active Oniogramas simultaneously. The Oniogramas are based on the SER (Be), HACER (Do), and TENER (Have) framework; in the SER, the aim is to identify 3 to 5 aspects of identity to develop; the HACER corresponds to unlimited specific actions, while in the TENER, a maximum of three (03) desired tangible results will be set.
- GTD System: This method aims to establish the Daily Management of tasks and projects to be developed by the "User", organized by context and life areas, classified by the level of energy required, performing a weekly review and follow-up of their progress, for which an inbox will also be available to capture ideas that contribute to the fulfillment of the tasks.
- Progress and Compliance Metrics: The "App" will send the "User" their progress and compliance metrics periodically and in a personalized manner.
- Usage Time and Activity Patterns: The "App" will maintain within its functionalities information related to usage time and activity patterns within the "App", determined by the use made by the "User".

VII. REGISTRATION AND USER ACCOUNT: When registering an account, the "User" agrees, declares, and guarantees that they will provide truthful, updated, complete, and accurate information requested in the registration form. They must also select a username and password and must keep them confidential and updated. The "User" is solely responsible for all activity on their account and must notify the "App" of any strange unauthorized use. The "User" understands and agrees that violation of the foregoing makes them responsible for the unauthorized use of their account. The "App" will require email verification at the time of registration and reserves the right to request additional verifications. The "User" data requested for initial registration in the "App" are: 1.- Full name, 2.- Email address (verification), 3.- Secure password (minimum 8 characters), 4.- Date of birth (age verification), and 5.- Country of residence (IP address and general location).

VIII. SERVICE PLANS AND PRICE: The "App's" plans can be monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual according to the "User's" preference. Each subscription has its price, with the possibility of termination at any time, and they are automatically renewed on the first five (05) days of each period for an equal and successive period to the one contracted, payment must be made by bank transfer or charge to the credit card that the "User" has for these purposes, unless the "User" communicates in writing and in advance, at least one (01) business day before the expiration date of the respective period, or any of its extensions, their decision to terminate the "Services", in which case the "App" will proceed to cancel their subscription. The "User" declares to accept unconditionally that the breach of their payment obligation, within the first 15 calendar days of each month, quarter, semester, or calendar year, depending on the contracted plan, will enable the "App", at its discretion, to take any of the following measures: i) Suspend the provision of the "Services", and/or ii) Disable some of the functionalities of the "Services", and/or iii) Terminate the agreement and cancel the "Services" provided to the "User", in addition to being expressly authorized to send the user's data to external collection agencies and commercial bulletins. If the "User" terminates the contract before the end of the respective billing period, they will not have the right to request a refund of funds for the remainder of the billing period in question. Furthermore, the contracting of a plan will be governed by the time periods established in them and in no case by months or periods of days less than those fixed in said plans, where the "User" will not be authorized to request a refund of funds in case of canceling the subscription before the end of the current period.

- Trial Period: Notwithstanding the foregoing, the "App" offers its "User" this trial period which consists of the enjoyment and access to all functions of the "App" free of charge for only SEVEN (07) consecutive days, without the "App" requesting the "User's" bank or credit card details. If the "User" wishes to continue enjoying the "Services" and benefits of the "App" after the trial period has ended, the "User" must subscribe to one of the plans, in which case the "User" must provide the corresponding bank or payment details.
- Monthly Plan: The value per month (30 days) of the subscription in the "App" is USD 19.99
- Quarterly Plan: The value per quarter (3 months/90 days) of the subscription in the "App" is USD 49.99, representing a saving of USD 10 compared to the monthly plan.
- Semi-Annual Plan: The value per semester (6 months/180 days) of the subscription in the "App" is USD 89.99, representing a saving of USD 30 compared to the monthly plan.
- Annual Plan: The annual value (12 months / 365 days) of the subscription in the "App" is USD 150, representing a saving of USD 90 compared to the monthly plan; this plan includes priority access to new functions of the "App".

Plan comparison:

Feature	Monthly	Quarterly	Semi-Annual	Annual
Price	USD 19.99	USD 49.99	USD 89.99	USD 150.00
Price / Month	USD 19.99	USD 16.66	USD 15.00	USD 12.50
Saving	--	USD 10.00	USD 30.00	USD 90.00
% Discount	--	17%	25%	37%
Best for	Testing	Medium commitment	Serius transformation	Maximum saving

XI. DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS, AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE "USER": The "User" is obliged to use the "Service" properly, not to use under any circumstances third-party access passwords, and to maintain the confidentiality of the access passwords to the "Service". The "User" declares and guarantees that they have obtained all necessary consents and authorizations and comply with all applicable laws regarding privacy and personal data, in relation to any use and disclosure of information related to the use of the "App" and the "Services". The "User" releases the "App" from all liability for the accuracy of any information, data, documents, or materials entered or created with the "App" or the "Services". The entry, posting, or uploading of any information and storage of any information, data, documents, or materials in the "App" does not constitute an endorsement or guarantee regarding the conformity of such information with applicable law, nor the accuracy, timeliness, materiality, completeness, or reliability of such information or materials. The "User" is responsible for the content they create and must refrain from uploading illegal or harmful content. The "App" may terminate this agreement and the use of the service at any time and for any reason and without prior notice if the "User" violates any of these terms, or if fraud is suspected or their account has been compromised. Subscribers may use the "App" until the agreement has been terminated by either party in accordance with the terms of these Conditions. As a corollary to the above, the "User" agrees to indemnify the "App" in case of violation of these "Conditions", for misuse of the "Service", or for infringement of third-party rights.

XII. PROHIBITED USES: "Users" must access the information stored using the Services only for lawful purposes and may not use said information for the purpose of committing or promoting fraudulent acts or the commission of any act that would give rise to civil and/or criminal liability. The "User" agrees not to post, send, upload, distribute, provide, or introduce any material or information that may be illegal or considered fraudulent, defamatory, harmful, threatening, or offensive. Likewise, the "User" may not use any means to restrict or prevent another user from accessing the "App". No "User" is permitted to upload material to the "App" that is likely to infringe the intellectual property rights of others, or to upload material that may affect the functioning of our websites, systems, and equipment. It is prohibited to use the "App" and the "Services" in a way that leads to blocking access, harming, or damaging the "App" in any way, or disabling any of our servers. It is prohibited to attempt to obtain unauthorized access to "App" accounts, computer systems, or networks of any other user through password mining, keystroke logging, hacking, or any other means. The "User" agrees not to upload to the "App" files that contain viruses, trojans, malware, spyware, worms, corrupt files, or any other material or software that may damage the operation of another computer. The breach of the aforementioned obligations will enable the "App" to initiate the corresponding legal actions in accordance with Chilean legislation, especially those provided in Law 19.223 on Computer Crimes and its subsequent modifications. The user may not rent, sell, pledge, license, or sublicense in any way, nor assign or otherwise transfer nor manage the software belonging to the "App" under any circumstances, except with the express and written authorization of the "App".

XIII. INTELLECTUAL AND INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY: The "App" and its providers/licensors are the holders of the intellectual and industrial property rights of the Método Libre and its System, the Software and application code, the algorithms and processes, all URLs, materials, products, web content, web page designs, images, text, tools, utilities that make up the "Services", excluding the "Data" and information that the "User" supplies to us or is entered using the "App". The technical procedures, processes, concepts, and methods of operation that are inherent within the "App" constitute trade secrets. The use of our "Services" does not constitute a sale or transfer in any way of the intellectual property rights to the "Users". Notwithstanding the foregoing, any information or data entered by the "User" using the "App" or provided elsewhere to access the "App" on behalf of the "User" will remain the property of the user. All procedures, functionalities, software, trademarks or distinctive signs, images, photographs, graphics, text files, audio, video, and other content of the "Services" are protected by intellectual and industrial property laws; they may not be modified, copied, altered, reproduced, adapted, or translated by the "User" or third parties, without the express authorization of the respective legitimate owners of such content. Notwithstanding the above, it is possible, subject to the following conditions, for the "User" to use screenshots of the "App" while using the "Services". The use of this type of images is restricted to the following: a) It is prohibited to use screenshots of any beta version of the "App" unless it has been commercially released to the public; b) The use is only for illustrative purposes; c) Their use must not infringe any point of these conditions of use. Chipax has rights over various trademarks used in the operation of the "App" and this does not grant "Users" any right or license to use the registered trademarks of the "App" or any logo, trade name, or other intellectual property other than what is expressly set forth in this document.

XIV. PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION: The "App" certifies that it complies with and enforces the duty of protection of the personal data of its "Users" in accordance with the provisions of Law No. 19.628 on Privacy Protection and Law No. 21.719 which regulates the protection and processing of personal data and creates the personal data protection agency, in addition to its complementary regulations. The "User" is the owner of all personal data and all information that they provide to the "App". The use that the "App" makes of the information provided by the "User" corresponds to improving the service, personalizing the "User's" experience, generating reports and analytics of the "User's" process, sending relevant notifications, fulfilling legal obligations, preventing fraud and abuse.

We do not claim any ownership rights over the data and information uploaded to the "App" by the "User", which is why we do NOT sell your personal data and only share it with payment processors for transactions, with infrastructure services (hosting, analytics, others), when required by law, to comply with a court order, for the purposes of fraud prevention and law enforcement, with our lawyers in relation to any legal proceeding, and with the explicit consent of the "User". If we are forced to disclose your data or information, we will use our best efforts to provide you with a notification that allows you to challenge such request.

For the purpose of providing the "Services", the "User" declares to expressly authorize the "App" to carry out the processing of their personal data, such as email address and mobile phone number, if provided, the Internet connection IP, the advertising identifier, device characteristics, preferred language and location, session data (referring domain, pages visited, date and time of access to the web) and the Movement History. Likewise, the "User" expressly authorizes the "App" to use the personal data for the purpose of conducting statistical studies, sending and systematizing information, and sending surveys and offers to the "Users". However, this data will always be used anonymously, with the identification of the "User" remaining confidential, unless there is express consent to the contrary.

The "Data" is stored on secure servers, with encryption in transit (HTTPS) and at rest; periodic security audits will be carried out complying with industry standards.

In the event that the "User" does not want their personal data to be subject to the processing described in these "Conditions", they should not subscribe to the "App" or should unsubscribe from it. Subscription to the Service and acceptance of these Conditions constitute an express manifestation of consent to the aforementioned data processing. The rights of access, rectification, cancellation, or opposition may be exercised by written communication to the "App", at the email support@flowpartners.cl. In any case, the exercise of the rights of cancellation and opposition will require that the "User" first unsubscribe from the Service. The retention of the data provided by the "User" will be maintained while the account is active; in the case of account deletion, the data will be retained for a period of thirty (30) days (in case you wish to reactivate) and in the case of anonymized data, they will be retained indefinitely for analysis.

XV. "USER'S" RIGHTS OVER THEIR DATA: "Users" may access at any time their "Data" provided/uploaded to the "App", they may also rectify incorrect "Data", request deletion of "Data", port their "Data" to another service, object to certain processings, and withdraw consent. To exercise these rights, the "User" must contact us via email at support@flowpartners.cl.

XVI. COMMUNICATIONS: The "App" will communicate with the "User" through the "Service" itself, on the website, or by email sent to the email addresses provided by the "User", by SMS if a mobile phone was provided, or by any other means that may be agreed upon with the "User". By accepting these "Conditions", you expressly consent to receive electronically all communications, messages, agreements, documents, notices, and disclosures (collectively, "Communications") in connection with your account and your use of the Service. Communications include, but are not limited to: a) Agreements and policies, such as these conditions and our privacy policy, including updates thereto; b) Annual disclosures; c) Transaction receipts or confirmations; d) Communications related to delinquent accounts (which may also be by phone and may be made by the "App" or by anyone on its behalf, including a collection agent); e) Account statements and their corresponding history; and f) Commercial and promotional communications. By providing your consent, you confirm that you are able to receive, open, and print or download a copy of any of the Communications for your records. It is important that you keep copies of the Communications as they may not be accessible in your account at a later date. You may withdraw your consent to receive communications electronically, for which you must contact us through user assistance. If you withdraw your consent to receive communications electronically, the "App" may deny your registration for an account or establish an additional cost for delivering communications in physical format.

XVII. FEEDBACK: In case the "User" makes any suggestion or feedback, they grant the "App" the right to use it without compensation.

XVIII. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: Livelife (the "App") is a self-support tool, therefore it expressly states that it does not replace professional help, which is why the "App" is not responsible for decisions made based on the "App" and specific results are not guaranteed. The "App" shall not be liable for indirect or consequential damages, loss of data or information, loss of profits or opportunities, or damages exceeding the amount paid in the last twelve (12) months.

XIX. TERMINATION OF THE "SERVICE": Notwithstanding the provisions in these "Conditions", the "App" may terminate this agreement and the use of the service at any time and for any reason, without prior notice, if the "User" violates any of these terms, or if fraud is suspected or their account has been compromised in any way. "Users" may terminate the "Services" provided by the "App", up to five (05) days before the last business day of each month, so that the following month is not considered in the corresponding billing, without further limitation and freely. As effects of the termination of the "Service", the "User" loses access to the "App", the "Data" will be deleted according to these "Conditions", and pending payment obligations continue.

XX. FORCE MAJEURE: Neither party shall be considered responsible for a delay or failure in the performance of the service contract caused by reason of any occurrence of unforeseen events beyond its control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, natural disasters, power failures, server failures, failed service of providers or third parties, service interruptions, embargo, labor disputes, blockades and strikes, riots, wars, floods, insurrections, legislative changes, and government actions. In no case may the "User" claim from the "App" any compensation for damages that may be classified as direct damages, lost profits, loss of business, loss of commercial reputation, or claims of third parties against the "User", among others, due to defects, interruption, or failures in the application resulting from causes such as those mentioned above. Additionally, the "App" shall never be liable for the misuse of the application by the "User" or for any illegality or fraudulent or criminal act committed through its use.

XXI. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION: These "Conditions" shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Chile. Any difficulty or controversy that arises between the parties regarding the application, interpretation, duration, validity, or execution of this Contract, its complementary documents or modifications, or for any other cause related to these "Conditions", shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the Procedural Arbitration Rules of the Santiago Arbitration and Mediation Center, in force at the time of request. The arbitration shall be conducted in a single instance before a sole arbitrator who shall be of a mixed nature, that is, shall decide in law according to Chilean legislation and shall have the powers of an arbitrator regarding the procedure. For these purposes, the parties grant a special irrevocable power to the Santiago Chamber of Commerce A.G., so that, upon written request of either of them, it appoints the mixed arbitrator from among the lawyers who are members of the arbitral body of the Santiago Arbitration and Mediation Center. Each of the parties shall have the discretionary right to recuse, without cause and only once, the arbitrator appointed by the Santiago Chamber of Commerce A.G. No appeal shall proceed against the resolutions of the arbitrator, and the parties expressly waive them. The arbitrator shall be specially empowered to resolve any matter related to his/her competence and/or jurisdiction. For all effects derived from this Contract, the Parties set a special domicile in the commune and city of Santiago, Chile.

XXII. MODIFICATION OF THE "CONDITIONS": The "App" reserves the right to modify these "Conditions" at any time and without cause. However, significant changes will be notified by publishing an announcement on the Livelife Website and by means of an email sent to the "User", who will have a period of 15 days to choose between accepting the new terms and conditions or terminating the Service. If the "User", after said 15 days, does not express their will explicitly, it will be understood that they accept the new conditions that were notified to them in writing.

XXIII. IMPORTANT NOTICES:

- Mental Health Notice: Livelife (the "App") is NOT a substitute for professional therapy or medical treatment, which is why the "User" should not make medical decisions based on the content and information of the "App" and should seek immediate professional help in case of experiencing any emotional crisis.
- Financial Notice: The financial suggestions provided by the "App" are referential and educational, so they should not be considered as professional advice, therefore the "User" should consult with a certified financial advisor for making important decisions.
- Notice Regarding Minors: The "Service" is not directed at minors under the age of eighteen (18), which is why we do not intentionally collect data from minors.

XXIV. CONTACT AND SUPPORT:

- General Support: Contact via email at support@flowpartners.cl

IMPORTANT: These terms and conditions come into effect from the moment of their acceptance and will remain in force while you use LIVELIFE APP.
